

Flow Chart<sup>1</sup> of the Final Round: Connecticut Debate Association, Glastonbury School, March 7, 2009

Resolved: The U.S. should withdraw all regular combat forces from Afghanistan.

The final round at Glastonbury was between Hamden (Hannah Grigg and Nick Gauthier) on the Affirmative and Hamden (Cassie Webb and John Tebes) on the Negative. The debate was won by the Affirmative.

Format Key

It's hard to reproduce notes taken on an 11" by 14" artist pad on printed paper. The three pages below are an attempt to do so. The first page covers the constructive speeches, the second page covers the cross-ex, and the third page covers the rebuttal. The pages are intended to be arranged as follows, which is how my actual flow chart is arranged:

Note that the first page containing the constructive speeches always has arguments related to the Affirmative contentions at the top, and those relating to the Negative contentions at the bottom. This is not how the speeches may have been presented, in that often a speaker will deal with Negative arguments prior to the Affirmative. The “transcript” version of this chart presents the arguments in each speech as presented.

The chart uses “A1,” “N2,” etc. to refer to the Affirmative first contention, the Negative second contention and so forth. It also uses the following abbreviations:

“AF” Afghanistan

---

<sup>1</sup> Copyright 2009 Everett Rutan. This document may be freely copied for non-profit, educational purposes.

| First Affirmative Constructive  | First Negative Constructive   | Second Affirmative Constructive  | Second Negative Constructive  |
|---|---|--|---|
| 1) Introduction2) Statement of the Resolution3) Afghanistan ("AF") is not a country.a) It is composed of tribes, the forms of a Western nation-state have been pushed on itb) Our problems there have occurred because we have ignored history4) Definitionsa) "Regular combat forces" excludes special forces and advisorsb) "withdraw" means to remove within a few years, as advised5) A1: Military victory is unobtainable in Afghanistana) The only one to ever conquer the country was Alexander the Greatb) The country is difficult to conquer because it lends itself to asymmetric warfarec) There is no real central government, just tribal chiefs.6) A2: Withdrawal will permit stability by other meansa) Withdrawal may lead to collapse of the central governmentb) This is not necessarily badc) It would be better to work through the tribal chiefsi) AF was ruled this way for thousands of yearsii) Stability is best result for US foreign policy interests | 1) Intro2) Resolution3) We accept the Affirmative definitions4) A1: The US needs its military in AFa) Tribal chiefs will turn to religion and are anti-USb) Withdrawal is the same as giving Osama bin Laden control5) A2: You cannot stabilize through terrorisma) Need to keep troops to prevent others from asserting controlb) Difficult doesn't mean the US cannot succeed   | 1) Intro2) A1 vs N1 and N2: the Neg. believes in a certain date for victorya) AF is ideal for asymmetric warfareb) This matches US firepower with familiarity with the terrain and local knowledgei) This is what defeated the Sovietsc) The US can't win an asymmetric contesti) We can only lower the cost by bringing the locals on to our sideii) There are hundreds of different tribes in AFd) Look at Alexander the Greati) Formed alliances with the tribal chiefsii) His soldier married locale) Nothing has changed since that time3) A2: If the gov't collapses without US power, is it really a gov't?a) The Taliban are terrorists, but get the tribal chiefs to fight themi) Tribes know who the terrorists are and where they areii) The US army can't do thisb) This isn't a matter of pride. We should care what others think. We should do what works! | 1) Intro2) Resolution3) There are three main disputed points:a) The Aff believes we can use the tribal chiefs and ignore past years of action.i) This doesn't deal with the problemii) Many are against the US due to religion and ideologyiii) Tribal chiefs themselves are vulnerable to terroristsiv) Terrorists could re-take AFv) This is why AF needs a strong central gov'tvi) Currently Kabul is stabilized, as is northern AF, and elections have been heldb) The Soviets provide a false examplei) The Soviet invasion was part of the Cold Warii) The US supported the mujaheddiniii) AF was site of a conflict between two foreign powersc) Aff says Neg wants to wait for victoryi) Neg says victory is needed now |
|   | 1) N1: Withdrawal will further destabilize the regiona) Withdrawal admits that we haven't accomplished our objectiveb) Al Qaida and other terrorists will try to gain controlc) Need to educate and provide economic aid to show we came for good reasons2) N2: Withdrawal will harm world's image of the USa) We have been unsuccessful since 2001b) Withdrawal will permit terrorists to conquer the countryc) Our goal should be to help AF and the US |  | 1) N1: The 80,000 US troops are a major force for stability in AFa) Withdrawal would forfeit the progress madeb) The tribal chiefs would fall to terrorists2) N2: Withdrawal admits defeata) After 9/11, Al Qaida and the Taliban were defeatedb) Withdrawal will lead Europeans and others to see US as weakc) Our efforts in AF are workingd) Paying the tribal chiefs will just lead to corruption   |

| Cross-ex of First Affirmative   | Cross-ex of First Negative  | Cross-ex of Second Affirmative   | Cross-ex of Second Negative   |
|---|---|--|---|
| 1) Do the tribal chiefs want to help stabilize the country? Yes. They are frustrated due to lack of power 2) Why did we go into AF in the first place? To get rid of the Taliban 3) Isn't the Taliban supported by the tribes? No, the tribal chiefs kept them out 4) Who has control of AF? The US military, chiefs, others. Depends on where. 5) How would you go about supporting the chiefs? We already have. By contacting them and giving them support. 6) Aren't the tribal chiefs anti-US? Yes, some are. But anti-US sentiment would decline if we withdrew. Supporting them would also reduce anti-US sentiment | 1) The US shouldn't leave AF until it has accomplished its mission? Yes 2) What is its mission? Neutralize the terrorist threat 3) So if it's neutralized, we can leave? We want suitable conditions 4) Which are? No rising terrorist power 5) What about the tribal chiefs and their religious beliefs? The people in power need to be ones we can believe in. 6) Is AF stable? Not now. We need regular combat forces. 7) Why will it change? Withdrawal will make it worse. 8) Will it stabilize if we continue? Yes, if we send more troops. | 1) You believe we should rely on the tribal chiefs? Yes. 2) Do the tribal chiefs all agree with each other? They don't, that's the point. But they do have the power. 3) Has the US gone into AF for nothing? No. We needed to get rid of the Taliban and we did. 4) But the Taliban still exists and is a threat? Yes, but they have less power. The US can't prevent them from coming back. 5) The tribal chiefs can suppress the Taliban? Yes. The tribal chiefs are the only ones who can. 6) Aren't the tribal chiefs less well armed than the central gov't? The tribal chiefs have men and guns. 7) Weren't the Soviets in AF during the Cold War? Yes | 1) What are the root causes of terrorism in AF? There are many, religious differences, tribal. You can't impose a Western ideology. 2) If the cause is religious, how can we hope to stop it? The Afghans want their own gov't. We shouldn't desert them. 3) Doesn't terrorism result from the US presence? No, from the Taliban. 4) What would be the result of a US pullout? Some areas would fall to the Taliban, some would stay with the gov't in place. |

| First Affirmative Rebuttal  | First Negative Rebuttal  | Second Negative Rebuttal  | Second Affirmative Rebuttal   |
|---|--|---|---|
| <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1) Intro</li> <li>2) A1: The US has never won a contest with asymmetric warfare               <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a) We need a new approach.</li> </ol> </li> <li>3) N1: AF is not stable now               <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a) The central gov't is weak. Elections have been postponed to help Karzai</li> <li>b) AF is getting worse</li> <li>c) More troops will not help against asymmetric warfare</li> </ol> </li> <li>4) N2: Military withdrawal is not turning our back               <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a) We will continue to provide aid                   <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>i) E.g. in Somalia the area of Puntland is stable under tribal control</li> </ol> </li> <li>b) Negative is against tribal control                   <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>i) We can't impose a different gov't.</li> <li>ii) Tribal control is appropriate the Afghans</li> </ol> </li> <li>c) Other countries will be impressed by our change in strategy                   <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>i) The Middle East will see our support of tribal chiefs as respect</li> </ol> </li> </ol> </li> </ol> | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1) Intro</li> <li>2) A1: In C-X the Aff says we should reply on tribal chiefs only               <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a) The tribal chiefs may not support US goals</li> <li>b) The result is likely more corruption</li> </ol> </li> <li>3) A2: Tribal chiefs have differences among themselves               <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a) They may choose not to help us and do what they want</li> <li>b) With US forces and aid there will be benefits for AF and the US</li> </ol> </li> <li>4) N1: Anti-US terrorism will rise again if we withdraw               <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a) This will again pose a major threat to the US</li> <li>b) There will be no safety and stability</li> </ol> </li> <li>5) N2: Leaving shows that we did not accomplish our goals               <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a) We have no idea what the tribal chiefs will do if we leave</li> </ol> </li> </ol> | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1) Intro</li> <li>2) N1: If we withdraw, the tribal chiefs won't protect Afghans from terrorism               <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a) Al Qeida and the Taliban caused many deaths in AF</li> <li>b) Tribal chiefs do not have forces to resist them                   <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>i) US aid is not enough</li> </ol> </li> <li>c) Therefore terrorism will grow, and AF will again become a base for global terrorism</li> </ol> </li> <li>3) N2: If tribal chiefs fail, what will the world think of the US?               <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a) They will blame us                   <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>i) This is what helped Osama bin Laden in the 1990s</li> <li>ii) Now he threatens the world</li> </ol> </li> </ol> </li> <li>4) The issue in this debate is how best to protect the Afghan people               <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a) We can't let the Taliban or Al Qeida take over.</li> <li>b) The US believes every life is important</li> <li>c) AF needs US forces to resolve the issue</li> <li>d) The Neg does not advocate more troops.</li> </ol> </li> </ol> | <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>1) How do we stabilize AF?               <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a) If we stop terrorism, we stop the Taliban</li> <li>b) The Aff says the root of instability is the Taliban                   <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>i) Al Qeida is helped by the Taliban</li> <li>ii) The opposition in AF supports the Taliban</li> </ol> </li> <li>c) The Taliban is a reflection of anti-Americanism                   <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>i) Afghans are fiercely independent</li> <li>ii) E.g. look at their response to the Soviets</li> <li>iii) Now they are responding the same way to the US</li> <li>iv) We are causing the problem</li> </ol> </li> </ol> </li> <li>2) The solution is to let the tribal chiefs rule               <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a) This is how AF has been ruled for thousands of years</li> <li>b) The tribal chiefs want to govern themselves</li> <li>c) The existing "democratic" gov't is failing</li> <li>d) The cause of the failure arises from outside</li> </ol> </li> <li>3) What if the Afghans don't want our help?               <ol style="list-style-type: none"> <li>a) They want aid and development, not troops</li> <li>b) Can't justify our armed forces simply by keeping armed forces in AF</li> </ol> </li> </ol> |